

Pastor's e-Note

Morristown United Methodist Church (12/7/2017)

Dear Friends,

Music is a big part of this holy season of Advent and Christmas. I just love to have music all around me to delight my ears and bless my whole being.

Today I had a real treat to sit in our sanctuary and listen to two gifted musicians perform at our Music-at-Noon concert. I sat there and let myself go – and let their music take me to a place of pure delight. Thank you to Megan Coiley and Maria Curcio, and Sarah A Michal for bringing them to us.

This coming Sunday, we will be blessed by our Jubilation Bell Ringers and Chancel Choir. I look forward to their music. By the way, we are also decorating the Christmas tree in the sanctuary, and please feel free to bring your own ornaments or we will pass onto you additional ornaments before the service.

The following Sunday on December 17th, our Chancel Choir will present selections from Handel's Messiah. I have been practicing with our Choir and we are getting there. Please mark your calendar and join us.

On a pastoral note, "Missy" Frantz, the daughter-in-law of Nancy and Rolf Frantz, passed away in peace at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday. It has been a long journey for her and she is with the Lord. Please keep her, her husband Eric, their daughter Bryce, and Nancy and Rolf in your prayers. We will let you know about her memorial service information at a later time.

May the peace and joy of music touch you deeply and bring you closer to the heart of God during this season.

See you in Church.

Making Joyful Melodies With You,

Pastor Brandon
