

Pastor's e-Note

Morristown United Methodist Church (12/27/2017)

Dear Good Friends,

This is the last week of 2017! It is hard to believe that we are going to bid our farewell to 2017 in a few days.

For some people, 2017 has been a great year. For others, it has been a challenging year. And for some others, it has been a mixture of both. All in all, we can say in confidence that by God's grace we have come thus far and thank God.

We believe in our God, who is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and the first and the last. In our God, we see and experience the totality of life. And from this deeper truth, we can embrace all experiences of life and move on.

I want to say a big thank you to Sarah Michal, Jennifer Yang and all of our choir members for their inspiring and outstanding music last Sunday. They made our Christmas Eve services so meaningful and powerful. Thank you, friends, for your labor of love through your music ministry.

This coming Sunday is the last Sunday of the year. I will share with you a special message on “Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow.” We will also baptize a precious child during worship. So, join us and let us celebrate it by worshipping God in Spirit and Truth.

Blessings,

Pastor Brandon
