

Pastor's e-Note

Morristown United Methodist Church (12/19/2017)

Dear Church Family and Friends,

I greet you with the Advent joy and peace today. Our church office is busily putting together the worship bulletins for this coming Sunday's services as I write this note.

Last Sunday, we had the most beautiful Cantata, "Selections from Handel's Messiah," by our Chancel Choir. On behalf of our church family, I want to give each choir member a word of deep thanks for bringing the good news of Christmas through their music ministry. A word of special thanks to Sarah Michal and Jennifer Yang for their inspiring leadership. Thank you and God bless you all!

I hope you will join us for our annual Christmas Singers Music at Noon concert tomorrow, Thursday, December 21 at 12:15 p.m. This is one of our favorite holiday traditions here at MUMC. Lunch is served in Fellowship Hall at 11:30 a.m. for $8.00/$7.00 for seniors and the concert is free!

Just a friendly review about our services this coming Sunday. . .

- 10:15 a.m. Sunday morning service (4th Sunday of Advent) with an outstanding message by Jack Scharf.
- 3:30 p.m. Nueva Esperanza Dinner Service led by Pastor Charles Perez.
- 5:00 p.m. Family Christmas Eve Service with Lessons and Carols. Our young people will be invited to participate in putting together the Living Nativity with different characters and animal figures.
- 7:10 p.m. Pre-Christmas Evening Organ Concert by our own Jennifer Yang.
- 7:30 p.m. Enchanted Christmas Eve Candlelight Service for everyone.

We look forward to having you join us in these beautiful services. Invite your friends and neighbors. We have lots of Christmas Spirit to share with everyone at MUMC.

God bless you all and see you in Church.

In Joy and Peace,

Pastor Brandon
