

Pastor's e-Note

Morristown United Methodist Church (3/01/2018)

Greetings, good friends. Today is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!

It is good to welcome this new day. It is also good to be alive in God's grace and Spirit. No matter what is going on in life, we can still say that life is good because God is good. This claim doesn't ignore the reality of challenges and issues in life; instead, it reaffirms that God's goodness overcomes darkness and God's love has the final word.

So, during this season of Lent, I invite you to stay connected to the goodness of the Lord. As Psalm 23 states, "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long." It is a powerful way of living in the Lord.

Are you having a difficult day today? Are you dealing with unsurmountable challenges? Are you carrying such a heavy burden on your shoulders?

I say to you that your difficulties, challenges and burdens are temporary. These things do not define who you are or where you need to go. The goodness of the Lord does. May your life space be filled with God's goodness today and always.

This coming Saturday is a big D-Day for our church's Annual Rummage Sale. It will be between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. If you can come out and help throughout this week and on Saturday, please join us. Also, let your friends and neighbors know about it and invite them.

Sunday, March 4th, our own Kevin Vance will share the message on "Am I Accepted?" It is going to inspire you and encourage you? Look forward to seeing you in worship this Sunday.

May the goodness of the Lord bless you and keep you.

With Joy and Love,

Pastor Brandon
